Playoff's March 5 - March 18 East Champ vs. West Runner up at East Champ house
Playoff's March 5 - March 18 West Champ vs. East Runner Up at West Champ house

March 19 - April 1 Championship at Season best record house

Each playoff match is a race to 15

It will be a random draw as to who will be in each division. For example's above, if you were to draw number one, you will replace the number 1 with your name everywhere above the number 1 appears. If you draw number two, you would replace your name with every number 2 above.....and so on with every number thru number 6.

You will play everybody twice in the year, home and away. Play by the County 8 Ball house rules that are used in the tournament.

You will have roughly 2 weeks, each match, to schedule a time to play your opponent.

Every match, you will play your opponent 25 games. Keep up with wins and loses for the entire season. That will be a total of 250 games that you will play in the course of the entire season.

At season end. The winner of the East will play the West runner up, at the home of the East winner.

And the West winner will play the East runner up, at the home of the West winner.

Then those two winners will play for the championship at the home of the season best record of those two.

The playoff's and championship will be a race to 15.
